Recommended Background Reading

1 Samuel 22:1-23

- 1) What was the terrible tragedy that occurred at the hand of Doeg the Edomite (see 1 Sam 22)? How can we reconcile the sentiments of verse 1 of the Psalm with that event?
- 2) List the four characteristics of the wicked from verses 1-4. How does this parallel with the world today?
- 3) What do we identify as the final destinies of the wicked and the righteous from verses 5-8?
- 4) What does verse 7 tell us about trusting in the right things; and what New Testament parallels can you identify.
- 5) What did David mean by referring to himself as “a green olive tree in the house of God”?
- 6) What are the characteristics of the righteous person and how can we apply that to our experience today?
