Tuesday 21st/Wednesday 22nd October 2014

In our last study we were introduced to an unlikely character of faith living among the pagan nation that God was about to give His people. Rahab knows that this is going to be the outcome and proceeds to negotiate her own safety and that of her family.

- 1) What do verses 12 and 13 reveal about Rahab's faith?
- 2) What does our passage tell us about the spies that Joshua had sent to Jericho?
- 3) In what practical ways in verses 18-20 is Rahab called to prove her trust in God to save her?

The scarlet cord has been described as a beautiful picture of the believer's salvation...

- 4) What earlier event in the history of the Israelites is this a reminder of? What are the similarities?
- 5) In James 2:25 Rahab is described as having been justified by works. What does James mean?
- 6) What have you found helpful from the study of Rahab in Joshua 2?
